HOMEOWNERSHIP CHECKLIST

There are 3 phases of buying a home: Making The Decision, Preparing to Buy A Home, and Purchasing The Home. Use this checklist as a high-level overview of what to focus on in each stage of the home buying process.

	List your pros and cons of purchasing.  Create or review your SPENDING Will you be able to continue your current lifestyle comfortably?  Is the market favorable for buyers?
$\overline{\Box}$	Can you save for your down payment?
	Can you save for home repairs?
	Is your income stable for the foreseeable future?
	Check your credit score to determine if it needs work.
	Will I use a VA loan or another type of mortgage loan?
	Will I put a down payment with my VA Loan?
ΡI	REPARING TO BUY A HOME
	Reach out to a HUD Certified Housing Counselor .
$\overline{\Box}$	Increase your credit score as much as possible.
	Evaluate and research loan program types and eligibility (Conventional, FHA, VA, USDA, etc.)
	Save for your down payment, upfront costs, and closing costs.
	Take the Veteran Saves Pledge and choose "Homeownership" as your savings goal.
	Shop for a lender by calling reputable financial institutions or mortgage companies to inquire:  • What loan programs do they offer?
	<ul><li>What loan programs do they offer?</li><li>Current interest rates and their interest rate-lock policy?</li></ul>
	What lender fees do they charge for mortgages?
	• Do they sell their loans?
	Are they well versed in VA loans?
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process? Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.  Review your loan disclosures from your lender to determine your estimated closing costs and mort
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.  Review your loan disclosures from your lender to determine your estimated closing costs and mort payment.  Begin saving for emergencies and home repairs by setting up automatic payments.  Before closing, do a walk-thru of the home to ensure all required repairs were completed.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.  Review your loan disclosures from your lender to determine your estimated closing costs and mort payment.  Begin saving for emergencies and home repairs by setting up automatic payments.
	Consider the level of care and customer service the lenders provide. Are they attentive, respond in timely fashion, are patient with your questions, and are thorough in explaining the process?  Get a pre-approval letter from your lender.  Commit to getting no new debt until your home is closed.  Choose a reputable, local real estate agent and begin shopping for a home.  Once you are under contract, begin shopping for homeowners insurance.  Get a home inspection.  Review your loan disclosures from your lender to determine your estimated closing costs and mort payment.  Begin saving for emergencies and home repairs by setting up automatic payments.  Before closing, do a walk-thru of the home to ensure all required repairs were completed.  Ensure the lender has set up an escrow account for your property insurance and property

☐ Keep your automatic payments going to prepare for repairs and upkeep.